Q.NO.	QUESTIONS	MAR KS	CO ADDRES SED	BLOO M'S LEVEL
PART-A	1(A) There are four aviation companies in India. One of the companies Biman is a private company with only 20 members, holding equally 100% of its entire equity paid up share capital. Management of Biman makes a proposal its Board of Directors to purchase 50% stake in another company Udan, whose equity paid up share capital is 2000 crore. According to the proposal, Biman would be immensely benefitted from this acquisition, as it would help it to run flights to the newer destinations and will also help reduce competition in near future. The acquisition is proposed to be effected through the following ways: Udan is to issue fresh shares @ 1200 per share to Biman. FOUR Udan promoters will sell their entire stake (40%) to Biman and exit the company entirely. To give effect to the above deal, you are required to guide Biman and Udan regarding the procedure that they are required to following, by reference to the provisions of companies Act or other most relevant laws applicable to the acquisition.	10	CO 4& 3	BT5
	1(B) Prepare the application, single or joint, as the case may be, which may be filed with the relevant authority, for seeking approval of the deal.	10	CO 2& 3	BT4

1(C)	Two shareholders of Biman (husband and wife) are not in favour of the acquisition. According to them, there are three-fold reasons to their objections. One, acquisition will erode the strong corporate culture of Biman. Two, reduction of competition will make it sluggish in the long run and harm it eventually. Three, issue price is way more than market price, thus making the deal costly. These two dissenting shareholders approach you for your advice on how to exercise their rights and get the deal stalled. Advise the two shareholders on their rights and remedies.	5	CO 1& 3	BT3
Q2(A)	Hiralal Labs is a pathlab company listed on BSE and Indore Stock Exchange in India. It has a subsidiary, Lal Labs, which is not a listed company.
