Celebration of Constitution Day

School of Education and Humanities organised Poster and Collage making activity on the occasion of Constitution day. Constitution Day of India is also known as Samvidhan Divas or National Law Day or National Constitution Day. B.A.B.Ed. Sem 3 students of the Department of Education and Humanities participated in a 2-hour poster- and collage-making activity. The activity's theme focused on the representation of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution, and participants were to use their creativity by creating collages and posters.

The activity's primary goal was to address the sense of patriotism. The students' enthusiasm was evident in their presentation, which was easy to see and feel. The main goals of this Activity were to engage the students and encourage their creativity while giving them a platform to showcase their skills. It inspired them to use their critical and inventive thinking skills to advance artistic beauty.

The Constitution Day was celebrated in our department on to create awareness on the Indian Constitution.

Showcasing Innovative Streaks

Faculty Highlight: Using Differentiated Teaching Pedagogy

At the School of Education and Humanities, Dr. Arvinder Kaur an educator used an innovative teaching approach fostering analytical and critical learning through role play in her classroom while teaching VAC Essential of Life Skills. Integrated B.Ed Sem 1 students presented their play on various topics like Social issues, Depression, Challenges faced by girls, family issues, etc. This activity not only promoted cooperative learning but also provided an experiential dimension to their education. By actively participating in these hands-on activities, students not only grasped complex concepts about life skills more effectively but also retained them. Such innovative teaching methods at MRU empower students to become future path developers, nurturing their overall personality and fostering a holistic learning experience.

Fresher's Party

Manav Rachna University organised Fresher's Party for Semester 1 students. Every student eagerly awaits right from their time of admission for their most remarkable event of the University "FRESHER'S PARTY". Fresher's party is all about creating everlasting relationships with each other. The event is an indication of union among the students. Beautiful ambience, flashing lights and foot-tapping music, set the mood of the party right. The excitement augmented to a joyful high as performances graced the stage. The dance floor was left open for some unbridled energy. Joy and happiness could be seen among students of each and every course at the University
