

MANAV RACHNA UNIVERSITY STUDENT WELFARE

The Student Welfare aims for the development and welfare of the University's students and helps them enhance their skills and talent through various events. With a motive to promote participation in various literary, cultural, artistic, etc events. SW has always been there standing for/beside the students of Manav Rachna and will continue their efforts to encourage them.

CHECKMATE

19TH OCTOBER 2023

The chess competition was a resounding success, not only for its competitive nature but also for its ability to unite chess enthusiasts within the university community. It showcased the importance of intellectual and strategic pursuits while fostering a sense of belonging and camaraderie. This event is likely to become a cherished tradition at the university, further fueling the passion for chess among students and faculty.

The competition attracted a diverse group of participants, ranging from beginners to more experienced players. Students from various departments, faculty members, and even alumni of the university took part, making it a truly inclusive event.

Dandiya Night

20TH OCTOBER 2023

Before the vibrant Dandiya night commenced, a traditional and heartfelt pooja took place to invoke blessings and set a spiritually enriching tone. The atmosphere was filled with a sense of devotion and excitement as participants and attendees gathered around the beautifully adorned idol of Goddess Durga, seeking her divine grace for the upcoming festivities.

As the divine rituals unfolded, it served as a reminder of the cultural significance and reverence associated with the Dandiya night, creating a harmonious blend of spirituality and celebration to make the event even more special.

Dandiya Night, a lively and colorful celebration, was an evening of traditional Indian dance and music. Participants, dressed in vibrant ethnic attire, gathered in a beautifully decorated venue, holding dandiya sticks in hand. The rhythmic beats of the dhol and melodious tunes of folk songs set the stage for energetic and synchronized dandiya and garba dance performances. The venue came alive with the twirls and footwork of the dancers, creating an electrifying and joyful atmosphere. Dandiya Night not only celebrated culture but also fostered a sense of community and togetherness, making it a much-anticipated event, where people of all ages could revel in the joy of dance and festivities.

YOUTH PARLIAMENT

26TH OCTOBER 2023

A youth parliament recently took place, providing a platform for students to engage in meaningful discussions on important societal issues. This event fostered a spirit of civic participation and encouraged young voices to be heard. It was an excellent opportunity for students to gain a deeper understanding of the political process and the power of their ideas in shaping the future. The event's success highlighted the university's commitment to empowering the next generation of leaders and promoting civic engagement among its students.

KHEL KHELO

26TH OCTOBER 2023

"Khel Khelo" was an exciting sports competition held at our university, featuring a range of traditional and engaging games like tug of war and kho kho. The event brought together students from various backgrounds and encouraged them to showcase their athletic skills and team spirit.

Tug of war, a test of strength and unity, had teams pitted against each other in an epic battle of pulling and strategy. Kho kho, on the other hand, showcased agility and tag tactics, with participants chasing and evading each other in a thrilling race.

"Khel Khelo" not only promoted physical fitness but also fostered camaraderie among participants. It was a fantastic opportunity for students to unwind, connect, and enjoy some healthy competition, making it a memorable and cherished event at our university.

Designed by: Shanul Singh